

News Notes and Gossip of Washington Smart Set

Items of Interest and Importance of Past, Present, and Future Among Official and Fashionable Folk.

The Secretary of Commerce will give the first important official dinner of the season this evening, when he will entertain the members of the Federal Reserve Board at his home in Massachusetts avenue.

Mrs. Redfield left Washington for New York this morning, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Armat. They will be joined by Mrs. Redfield's daughter, Mrs. Charles K. Drury, who is now living in Rochester, and the party will spend several days at the Belmont Hotel.

The Russian summer embassy at Newport has been closed for the season, and the members of the staff have taken possession of their winter quarters. The Ambassador and Madame Hakhmetoff are again at the embassy in Sixteenth street, and the Counselor of the Embassy and Madame Scherbatov have moved into their new home in Connecticut avenue.

Col. Nicolai Golejewski, military attaché, and Madame Golejewski have given up the residence in Church street, which they have occupied for several years, and will spend the winter in New York, where they are established at 18 East Ninety-second street. The naval attaché, Commander Miashtov, will also be in New York for the greater part of the winter, and has quarters at 216 West Eighty-ninth street. The assistant naval attaché, Lieutenant Fedotoff, a recent addition to the embassy staff, will also maintain headquarters in New York.

H. de Bach, the second secretary, and in time of peace a cotton leader second to Count Laszlo Czakany, of the Austro-Hungarian embassy, in Washington's smartest circles, is still attached to the Washington staff, but absent on leave.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert T. Lincoln have again leased the residence in N street owned by Mrs. Alfred E. Bates. They will come to Washington early in November.

Mrs. Bates' daughter, Mrs. Frederick Rock Swift, of New York, is visiting here at her apartment in the Connecticut for a short period.

Col. George Andrews, U. S. A., retired, and Mrs. Andrews, who passed the autumn at Atlantic City, are established at their home in Columbia road for the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery Blair will leave Washington in a few days for Atlantic City, where they will pass the autumn. Mr. and Mrs. Blair have leased their place at Silver Spring, Md., for the winter to Mr. and Mrs. John Holt, and on Monday will leave a residence in town for the winter.

Dr. and Mrs. E. C. Schroeder will go to New York this week for a short stay.

The Japanese Ambassador and Viscountess Chinda will go to New York tomorrow for two or three days.

The Chinese Minister, Kai Fu Shah, left Washington yesterday for New York and will go today to Patterson, N. J., to speak at the dinner of the Silk Weavers' convention.

Ellen Wilson McAdoo, daughter of the Secretary of the Treasury and Mrs. W. G. McAdoo, who her nurse, has taken up her residence at the White House during the absence of her parents, who left Washington last night for the Pacific coast. They will be gone about three weeks. The Secretary is making an official trip and will stop in public buildings in a number of cities in the West.

John Clapp, who spent the summer motoring through the Northern and Eastern States, has returned to his home in this city.

Miss Edith Gracie entertained at a bridge party at four tables yesterday afternoon in compliment to her house guest, Miss Helene Smith and Miss Claire Cornell, of New York. Miss Gracie's mother, Mrs. Archibald Gracie, and Miss Smith presided at the table.

Miss Gracie will entertain a house party this weekend, and next week Mrs. Richard P. Worrall and Miss Eva Ingersoll Brown, both of New York, will come to Washington to be Miss Gracie's guests.

Mrs. William Franklin Draper was hostess at a tea yesterday at the White Sulphur Springs in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lee Haggin.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Couderd, who returned recently from Europe, are at their country place, La Chaumière, in Oyster Bay, L. I.

Miss Helena Craven Palmer, who spent the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Palmer, at their cottage in Bar Harbor, has arrived at the Virginia Hot Springs, where she will pass the autumn.

Mrs. J. Borden Harriman, who is en route to New York from the Pacific coast, is spending several days at the Powhatan. Mrs. Harriman is undecided when she will resume her residence in Washington, as she recently spent several days in Louisville, with her daughter, Miss Ethel Harriman, who is the guest of friends.

Mrs. Henry Howard, of New Orleans, and her daughter, Miss Flora Howard, arrived in Washington yesterday. They are the guests of Mrs. Howard's sister, Mrs. Richard Weightman. Mrs. Howard will return to New Orleans shortly, but Miss Howard, who spent several months in Washington last winter, will remain with her aunt until Christmas.

Mrs. Howard and Miss Howard spent the summer at Gloucester, Mass., and have been visiting in New York and on Long Island.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Dawson Trundle, the latter formerly Miss Lucy Elton Wright, have returned to the East after a seven weeks' honeymoon trip to the Pacific coast. They spent last week with Mrs. Trundle's parents, Dr. and Mrs. George H. Wright, at Carrollton, Md., and have now gone to their own home, near Poolesville, Md.

Mrs. George H. Wright will entertain the members of the Association of Collegiate Alumnae on Friday afternoon at her home at Linden Station, on the Forest Glen electric line. She will leave the corner of Ninth and P streets at 2:30 o'clock and each succeeding hour.

Mrs. J. J. Knapp, widow of Captain Knapp, U. S. N., is the guest of her son and daughter-in-law, Paymaster John Harrison Knapp, and Mrs. Knapp, at the St. Regis.

The British embassy staff has been increased by the addition of an assistant naval attaché—Commander W. Coyah,

Here on a Visit

(Copyright, by Buck.)
MISS ADRIENNE PORCHER.
Here with her aunt, Mrs. Delos Blodgett. Miss Porcher's marriage to Harry Roberts, of Atlanta, will take place in December.

R. N. R.—who has arrived at his post. Mrs. Coyah is in England.

The marriage of Miss Beale Robinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Robinson, of Hyattsville, to Dr. H. W. Watson, took place last evening at 8:30 at the Metropolitan church.

Col. George Andrews, U. S. A., retired, and Mrs. Andrews, who passed the autumn at Atlantic City, are established at their home in Columbia road for the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery Blair will leave Washington in a few days for Atlantic City, where they will pass the autumn. Mr. and Mrs. Blair have leased their place at Silver Spring, Md., for the winter to Mr. and Mrs. John Holt, and on Monday will leave a residence in town for the winter.

Dr. and Mrs. E. C. Schroeder will go to New York this week for a short stay.

The Japanese Ambassador and Viscountess Chinda will go to New York tomorrow for two or three days.

The Chinese Minister, Kai Fu Shah, left Washington yesterday for New York and will go today to Patterson, N. J., to speak at the dinner of the Silk Weavers' convention.

Ellen Wilson McAdoo, daughter of the Secretary of the Treasury and Mrs. W. G. McAdoo, who her nurse, has taken up her residence at the White House during the absence of her parents, who left Washington last night for the Pacific coast. They will be gone about three weeks. The Secretary is making an official trip and will stop in public buildings in a number of cities in the West.

John Clapp, who spent the summer motoring through the Northern and Eastern States, has returned to his home in this city.

Miss Edith Gracie entertained at a bridge party at four tables yesterday afternoon in compliment to her house guest, Miss Helene Smith and Miss Claire Cornell, of New York. Miss Gracie's mother, Mrs. Archibald Gracie, and Miss Smith presided at the table.

Miss Gracie will entertain a house party this weekend, and next week Mrs. Richard P. Worrall and Miss Eva Ingersoll Brown, both of New York, will come to Washington to be Miss Gracie's guests.

Mrs. William Franklin Draper was hostess at a tea yesterday at the White Sulphur Springs in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lee Haggin.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Couderd, who returned recently from Europe, are at their country place, La Chaumière, in Oyster Bay, L. I.

Miss Helena Craven Palmer, who spent the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Palmer, at their cottage in Bar Harbor, has arrived at the Virginia Hot Springs, where she will pass the autumn.

Mrs. J. Borden Harriman, who is en route to New York from the Pacific coast, is spending several days at the Powhatan. Mrs. Harriman is undecided when she will resume her residence in Washington, as she recently spent several days in Louisville, with her daughter, Miss Ethel Harriman, who is the guest of friends.

Mrs. Henry Howard, of New Orleans, and her daughter, Miss Flora Howard, arrived in Washington yesterday. They are the guests of Mrs. Howard's sister, Mrs. Richard Weightman. Mrs. Howard will return to New Orleans shortly, but Miss Howard, who spent several months in Washington last winter, will remain with her aunt until Christmas.

Mrs. Howard and Miss Howard spent the summer at Gloucester, Mass., and have been visiting in New York and on Long Island.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Dawson Trundle, the latter formerly Miss Lucy Elton Wright, have returned to the East after a seven weeks' honeymoon trip to the Pacific coast. They spent last week with Mrs. Trundle's parents, Dr. and Mrs. George H. Wright, at Carrollton, Md., and have now gone to their own home, near Poolesville, Md.

Mrs. George H. Wright will entertain the members of the Association of Collegiate Alumnae on Friday afternoon at her home at Linden Station, on the Forest Glen electric line. She will leave the corner of Ninth and P streets at 2:30 o'clock and each succeeding hour.

Mrs. J. J. Knapp, widow of Captain Knapp, U. S. N., is the guest of her son and daughter-in-law, Paymaster John Harrison Knapp, and Mrs. Knapp, at the St. Regis.

The British embassy staff has been increased by the addition of an assistant naval attaché—Commander W. Coyah,

Many Entertainments Are Planned by the Leaders of Society in Washington. Gossip of Hostesses.

Rev. H. V. Saunders, rector of Zion parish, Beltsville, performed the ceremony. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was seated in white crepe de chine, trimmed with rose point lace. Her tulle veil was caught with orange blossoms, and she carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. Her bridesmaids wore white tulle and carried pink chifon bouquets. The groom, who was given away by his father, wore a tuxedo and carried a white boutonniere. The ceremony was performed at 10 o'clock in the morning at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. McChord, at the apartment in the Willard.

Mrs. Robert Landon, wife of the Secretary of State, and Miss Helen Woodrow Jones were among the guests at the tea which Mrs. Charles C. McChord gave yesterday afternoon at her apartment in the Willard.

Senator William D. Paulding, of Delaware, who arrived in Washington and is stopping at the Shoreham. Other prominent arrivals at the Shoreham include Misses Marquand, of Princeton, Miss J. M. Averill, and Miss L. Averill, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa; Mrs. C. Tomlinson, of Atlantic City; Mr. and Mrs. Grant Duff, of New York; Thomas Lally, of New York; Julian T. Davies, of Long Island; Miss E. L. Simonds, of New Orleans; F. A. Summerfield, of New York; Miss Florence Fagan, of White Sulphur Springs, W. Va.; Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Blackburn, of Pittsburgh, and F. W. Wigmore, of Evansville, Ill.

Miss Beale Earle Buck, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Charles E. Buck, and Mr. D. John Williams will be married this evening at St. Paul's Church, Rock Creek. The ceremony will be performed by the bride's father, and she will be given away by her brother. The church will be decorated with autumn leaves and hydrangeas and white chrysanthemums. The bride will be caught to her hair with orange blossoms, and she will carry a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Emma Chesley, of Maryland, will be the maid of honor, and the bridesmaids are to include the bridegroom's two sisters, Misses Elizabeth and Anne Williams, Miss Ruth Stafford, and Mrs. C. E. Little.

Miss Chesley will wear a gown of white crepe de chine and a white tulle veil. Her bouquet will be of pink chrysanthemums. The bridesmaids will be gowned in white crepe de chine, with sleeves of blue ribbon. They will wear caps of blue tulle and will carry yellow chrysanthemums.

H. H. Buck, brother of the bride, is to act as best man, and another brother, Calvert H. Buck, Christopher Armat, Vernon Garnett, and O. L. Kennedy are to be the ushers.

Reception will follow at the rectory, when the following friends of the bride will assist: Mrs. T. C. J. Bailey, Miss Frances Brinkley, Miss R. G. Shreve, of Atlantic City; Miss R. B. Switzer, Mrs. H. H. Buck, and Mrs. Chesley E. Kelly.

The house will be decorated with autumn leaves, hydrangeas, and white chrysanthemums. Later in the evening a couple of friends will leave for a wedding trip North, the bride wearing a tailored suit of blue gabardine and a small blue hat of pressed silk, trimmed with white plumes. Upon their return, they will reside with the bride's parents at the rectory.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin MacVeach, who are at their place at Dublin, N. H., will return to Washington next week.

Mrs. Charles S. Hamlin, who has been at Mattapan, Mass., since June, will return next week.

John D. O'Rear, United States minister to Bolivia, arrived in Washington yesterday, and is stopping at the New Willard.

Mrs. Preston Gibson, who is staying at the Greenbrier, White Sulphur Springs, yesterday motored to Lewisburg for the day.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Todd, who spent the summer at the Virginia Hot Springs, have returned to the springs from Louisville for a short stay, and are guests of Mr. Todd's sister, Miss Christian Hauge, at her cottage, Barton Lodge.

There was a large gathering of society yesterday for the second day of the fall meeting of the Piping Rock Racing Association at Piping Rock. As the weather conditions were all that could be desired, lovers of the sport of kings were from all the social centers in the vicinity of New York to that beautiful course on the Piping Rock cliffs.

Among those seen in the boxes were Stephen B. Elkins, Miss Margaret Perin, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Couderd, Mr. and Mrs. Regis de Oliveira, and Miss Celestine Eustis.

Dr. Ethan Flag Butler, of this city, was an usher at the wedding last evening of Miss Margaret Armour, of Glen Ridge, N. J., and Dr. Thomas W. Harvey, Jr., in the Glen Ridge Congregational Church. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Clarence Hall Wilson, pastor of the church.

The maid of honor was Miss Mildred Armour, of Glen Ridge, and the bridesmaids Miss Dorothy Cordley, of Glen Ridge, and Miss Alice K. Harvey, of Orange.

Spencer Harvey, of Orange, was his brother's best man. The other ushers were John K. Harvey, of New York; John M. Hanford, of New York; Allen J. MacDonnell, of West New York; and Robert A. Hall, of Scranton, Pa. The bride is a niece of Mr. and Mrs. C. Weston Bailey, and following the ceremony there was a reception at their home.

The British Ambassador and Lady Spencer will give a dinner this evening in honor of Lord Reading, of the British financial commission. All the members of the United States Supreme Court have been invited to attend.

Mrs. Robert Landon, wife of the Secretary of State, and Miss Helen Woodrow Jones were among the guests at the tea which Mrs. Charles C. McChord gave yesterday afternoon at her apartment in the Willard.

Senator William D. Paulding, of Delaware, who arrived in Washington and is stopping at the Shoreham. Other prominent arrivals at the Shoreham include Misses Marquand, of Princeton, Miss J. M. Averill, and Miss L. Averill, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa; Mrs. C. Tomlinson, of Atlantic City; Mr. and Mrs. Grant Duff, of New York; Thomas Lally, of New York; Julian T. Davies, of Long Island; Miss E. L. Simonds, of New Orleans; F. A. Summerfield, of New York; Miss Florence Fagan, of White Sulphur Springs, W. Va.; Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Blackburn, of Pittsburgh, and F. W. Wigmore, of Evansville, Ill.

Miss Beale Earle Buck, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Charles E. Buck, and Mr. D. John Williams will be married this evening at St. Paul's Church, Rock Creek. The ceremony will be performed by the bride's father, and she will be given away by her brother. The church will be decorated with autumn leaves and hydrangeas and white chrysanthemums. The bride will be caught to her hair with orange blossoms, and she will carry a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.

SUBURBAN SHOPPING DAY BEING PLANNED

One Day Each Week to Be Set Aside for Special Appeal to Rural Residents.

Washington is to have a "suburban shopping day." One day in each week will be designated on which the merchants of the city will contrive to attract residents of rural communities to visit the capital and make their purchases, and the railroad companies are being urged to establish rates which will induce the "country cousins" to take advantage of the bargains.

This idea is the contribution of the women's section of the Retail Merchants' Association to the "buy-in-Washington" movement inaugurated several months ago by that organization. To assure the suggestion of an auspicious launching the proceeds of the booster theater party to be given by the women's section of the merchants' association Monday night at the National Theater will be devoted to defraying the initial expenses.

Under the direction of Mrs. M. Books, the sincere efforts which business women are putting forth to promote the interests of their city. Large quantities of flowers and attractive souvenirs will be distributed.

The proceeds from these sales will be devoted to providing handsome postcards and other means of advertising which will exploit the shopping opportunities that the capital affords. This

Miss Julia Turner Heyl, daughter of Col. Charles Heath Heyl, U. S. A., retired, whose marriage to Joseph Clay Habersham Colquitt, of Atlanta, will take place on the afternoon of November 1, will have a luncheon at the hotel on October 27, to meet Miss Heyl's friends.

Miss Heyl will be accompanied by her sister, Miss Helen Heyl, and her brother, Mr. J. H. Heyl. The luncheon will be given at the hotel, and the guests will be entertained by Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Holmes, of Virginia, and W. G. Schwab, of New York.

Following the ceremony a largely attended reception was held at the hotel, when the bride and groom were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Holmes, of Virginia, and W. G. Schwab, of New York.

Miss Julia Turner Heyl, daughter of Col. Charles Heath Heyl, U. S. A., retired, whose marriage to Joseph Clay Habersham Colquitt, of Atlanta, will take place on the afternoon of November 1, will have a luncheon at the hotel on October 27, to meet Miss Heyl's friends.

Miss Heyl will be accompanied by her sister, Miss Helen Heyl, and her brother, Mr. J. H. Heyl. The luncheon will be given at the hotel, and the guests will be entertained by Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Holmes, of Virginia, and W. G. Schwab, of New York.

Following the ceremony a largely attended reception was held at the hotel, when the bride and groom were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Holmes, of Virginia, and W. G. Schwab, of New York.

Miss Julia Turner Heyl, daughter of Col. Charles Heath Heyl, U. S. A., retired, whose marriage to Joseph Clay Habersham Colquitt, of Atlanta, will take place on the afternoon of November 1, will have a luncheon at the hotel on October 27, to meet Miss Heyl's friends.

Miss Heyl will be accompanied by her sister, Miss Helen Heyl, and her brother, Mr. J. H. Heyl. The luncheon will be given at the hotel, and the guests will be entertained by Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Holmes, of Virginia, and W. G. Schwab, of New York.

Following the ceremony a largely attended reception was held at the hotel, when the bride and groom were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Holmes, of Virginia, and W. G. Schwab, of New York.

Miss Julia Turner Heyl, daughter of Col. Charles Heath Heyl, U. S. A., retired, whose marriage to Joseph Clay Habersham Colquitt, of Atlanta, will take place on the afternoon of November 1, will have a luncheon at the hotel on October 27, to meet Miss Heyl's friends.

Miss Heyl will be accompanied by her sister, Miss Helen Heyl, and her brother, Mr. J. H. Heyl. The luncheon will be given at the hotel, and the guests will be entertained by Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Holmes, of Virginia, and W. G. Schwab, of New York.

Following the ceremony a largely attended reception was held at the hotel, when the bride and groom were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Holmes, of Virginia, and W. G. Schwab, of New York.

Miss Julia Turner Heyl, daughter of Col. Charles Heath Heyl, U. S. A., retired, whose marriage to Joseph Clay Habersham Colquitt, of Atlanta, will take place on the afternoon of November 1, will have a luncheon at the hotel on October 27, to meet Miss Heyl's friends.

Miss Heyl will be accompanied by her sister, Miss Helen Heyl, and her brother, Mr. J. H. Heyl. The luncheon will be given at the hotel, and the guests will be entertained by Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Holmes, of Virginia, and W. G. Schwab, of New York.

Following the ceremony a largely attended reception was held at the hotel, when the bride and groom were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Holmes, of Virginia, and W. G. Schwab, of New York.

Miss Julia Turner Heyl, daughter of Col. Charles Heath Heyl, U. S. A., retired, whose marriage to Joseph Clay Habersham Colquitt, of Atlanta, will take place on the afternoon of November 1, will have a luncheon at the hotel on October 27, to meet Miss Heyl's friends.

Miss Heyl will be accompanied by her sister, Miss Helen Heyl, and her brother, Mr. J. H. Heyl. The luncheon will be given at the hotel, and the guests will be entertained by Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Holmes, of Virginia, and W. G. Schwab, of New York.

Following the ceremony a largely attended reception was held at the hotel, when the bride and groom were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Holmes, of Virginia, and W. G. Schwab, of New York.

Miss Julia Turner Heyl, daughter of Col. Charles Heath Heyl, U. S. A., retired, whose marriage to Joseph Clay Habersham Colquitt, of Atlanta, will take place on the afternoon of November 1, will have a luncheon at the hotel on October 27, to meet Miss Heyl's friends.

Miss Heyl will be accompanied by her sister, Miss Helen Heyl, and her brother, Mr. J. H. Heyl. The luncheon will be given at the hotel, and the guests will be entertained by Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Holmes, of Virginia, and W. G. Schwab, of New York.

Following the ceremony a largely attended reception was held at the hotel, when the bride and groom were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Holmes, of Virginia, and W. G. Schwab, of New York.

SUBURBAN SHOPPING DAY BEING PLANNED

One Day Each Week to Be Set Aside for Special Appeal to Rural Residents.

Washington is to have a "suburban shopping day." One day in each week will be designated on which the merchants of the city will contrive to attract residents of rural communities to visit the capital and make their purchases, and the railroad companies are being urged to establish rates which will induce the "country cousins" to take advantage of the bargains.

This idea is the contribution of the women's section of the Retail Merchants' Association to the "buy-in-Washington" movement inaugurated several months ago by that organization. To assure the suggestion of an auspicious launching the proceeds of the booster theater party to be given by the women's section of the merchants' association Monday night at the National Theater will be devoted to defraying the initial expenses.

Under the direction of Mrs. M. Books, the sincere efforts which business women are putting forth to promote the interests of their city. Large quantities of flowers and attractive souvenirs will be distributed.

The proceeds from these sales will be devoted to providing handsome postcards and other means of advertising which will exploit the shopping opportunities that the capital affords. This

Miss Julia Turner Heyl, daughter of Col. Charles Heath Heyl, U. S. A., retired, whose marriage to Joseph Clay Habersham Colquitt, of Atlanta, will take place on the afternoon of November 1, will have a luncheon at the hotel on October 27, to meet Miss Heyl's friends.

Miss Heyl will be accompanied by her sister, Miss Helen Heyl, and her brother, Mr. J. H. Heyl. The luncheon will be given at the hotel, and the guests will be entertained by Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Holmes, of Virginia, and W. G. Schwab, of New York.

Following the ceremony a largely attended reception was held at the hotel, when the bride and groom were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Holmes, of Virginia, and W. G. Schwab, of New York.

Miss Julia Turner Heyl, daughter of Col. Charles Heath Heyl, U. S. A., retired, whose marriage to Joseph Clay Habersham Colquitt, of Atlanta, will take place on the afternoon of November 1, will have a luncheon at the hotel on October 27, to meet Miss Heyl's friends.

Miss Heyl will be accompanied by her sister, Miss Helen Heyl, and her brother, Mr. J. H. Heyl. The luncheon will be given at the hotel, and the guests will be entertained by Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Holmes, of Virginia, and W. G. Schwab, of New York.

Following the ceremony a largely attended reception was held at the hotel, when the bride and groom were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Holmes, of Virginia, and W. G. Schwab, of New York.

Miss Julia Turner Heyl, daughter of Col. Charles Heath Heyl, U. S. A., retired, whose marriage to Joseph Clay Habersham Colquitt, of Atlanta, will take place on the afternoon of November 1, will have a luncheon at the hotel on October 27, to meet Miss Heyl's friends.

Miss Heyl will be accompanied by her sister, Miss Helen Heyl, and her brother, Mr. J. H. Heyl. The luncheon will be given at the hotel, and the guests will be entertained by Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Holmes, of Virginia, and W. G. Schwab, of New York.

Following the ceremony a largely attended reception was held at the hotel, when the bride and groom were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Holmes, of Virginia, and W. G. Schwab, of New York.

Miss Julia Turner Heyl, daughter of Col. Charles Heath Heyl, U. S. A., retired, whose marriage to Joseph Clay Habersham Colquitt, of Atlanta, will take place on the afternoon of November 1, will have a luncheon at the hotel on October 27, to meet Miss Heyl's friends.

Miss Heyl will be accompanied by her sister, Miss Helen Heyl, and her brother, Mr. J. H. Heyl. The luncheon will be given at the hotel, and the guests will be entertained by Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Holmes, of Virginia, and W. G. Schwab, of New York.

Following the ceremony a largely attended reception was held at the hotel, when the bride and groom were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Holmes, of Virginia, and W. G. Schwab, of New York.

Miss Julia Turner Heyl, daughter of Col. Charles Heath Heyl, U. S. A., retired, whose marriage to Joseph Clay Habersham Colquitt, of Atlanta, will take place on the afternoon of November 1, will have a luncheon at the hotel on October 27, to meet Miss Heyl's friends.

Miss Heyl will be accompanied by her sister, Miss Helen Heyl, and her brother, Mr. J. H. Heyl. The luncheon will be given at the hotel, and the guests will be entertained by Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Holmes, of Virginia, and W. G. Schwab, of New York.

Following the ceremony a largely attended reception was held at the hotel, when the bride and groom were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Holmes, of Virginia, and W. G. Schwab, of New York.

Miss Julia Turner Heyl, daughter of Col. Charles Heath Heyl, U. S. A., retired, whose marriage to Joseph Clay Habersham Colquitt, of Atlanta, will take place on the afternoon of November 1, will have a luncheon at the hotel on October 27, to meet Miss Heyl's friends.

Miss Heyl will be accompanied by her sister, Miss Helen Heyl, and her brother, Mr. J. H. Heyl. The luncheon will be given at the hotel, and the guests will be entertained by Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Holmes, of Virginia, and W. G. Schwab, of New York.

Following the ceremony a largely attended reception was held at the hotel, when the bride and groom were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Holmes, of Virginia, and W. G. Schwab, of New York.

Miss Julia Turner Heyl, daughter of Col. Charles Heath Heyl, U. S. A., retired, whose marriage to Joseph Clay Habersham Colquitt, of Atlanta, will take place on the afternoon of November 1, will have a luncheon at the hotel on October 27, to meet Miss Heyl's friends.

Miss Heyl will be accompanied by her sister, Miss Helen Heyl, and her brother, Mr. J. H. Heyl. The luncheon will be given at the hotel, and the guests will be entertained by Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Holmes, of Virginia, and W. G. Schwab, of New York.

Following the ceremony a largely attended reception was held at the hotel, when the bride and groom were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Holmes, of Virginia, and W. G. Schwab, of New York.

SUBURBAN SHOPPING DAY BEING PLANNED

One Day Each Week to Be Set Aside for Special Appeal to Rural Residents.

Washington is to have a "suburban shopping day." One day in each week will be designated on which the merchants of the city will contrive to attract residents of rural communities to visit the capital and make their purchases, and the railroad companies are being urged to establish rates which will induce the "country cousins" to take advantage of the bargains.

This idea is the contribution of the women's section of the Retail Merchants' Association to the "buy-in-Washington" movement inaugurated several months ago by that organization. To assure the suggestion of an auspicious launching the proceeds of the booster theater party to be given by the women's section of the merchants' association Monday night at the National Theater will be devoted to defraying the initial expenses.

Under the direction of Mrs. M. Books, the sincere efforts which business women are putting forth to promote the interests of their city. Large quantities of flowers and attractive souvenirs will be distributed.

The proceeds from these sales will be devoted to providing handsome postcards and other means of advertising which will exploit the shopping opportunities that the capital affords. This

Miss Julia Turner Heyl, daughter of Col. Charles Heath Heyl, U. S. A., retired, whose marriage to Joseph Clay Habersham Colqu